Hi! I'm Rosie! I am a ladybug.

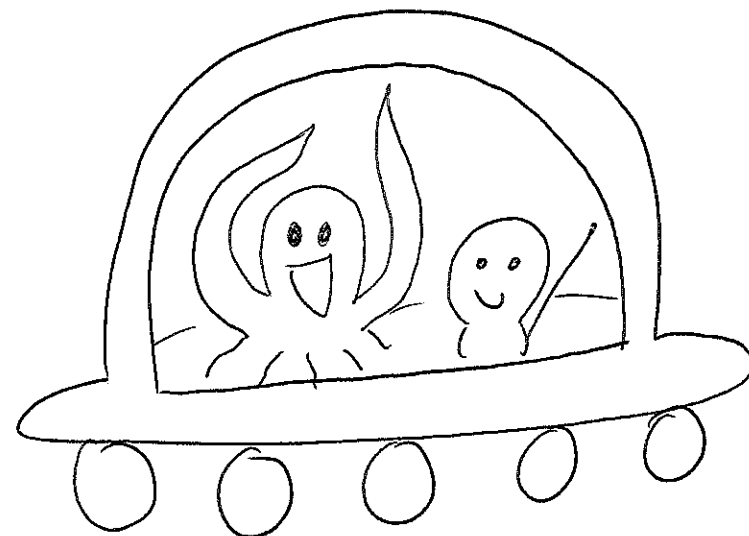

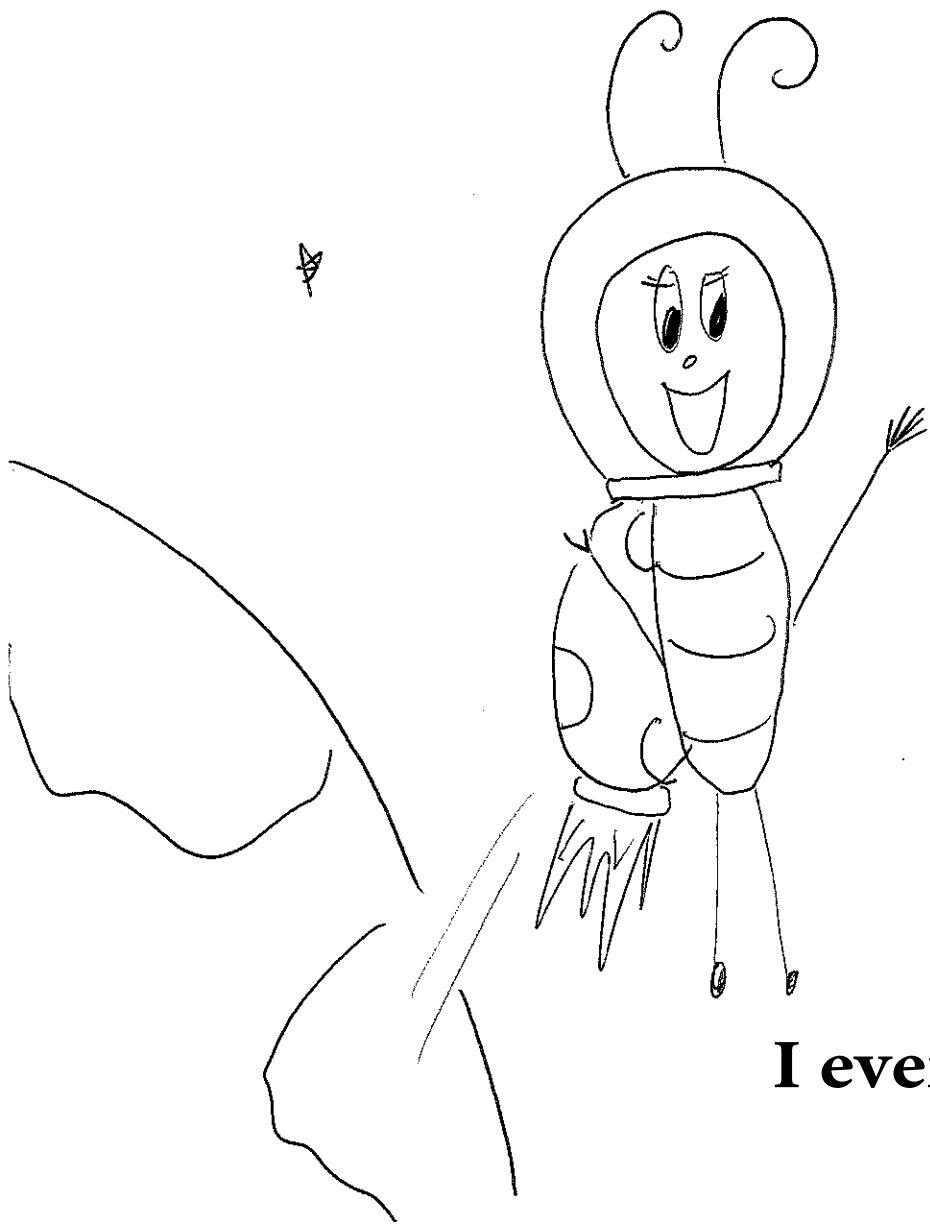

I love to play dress up.

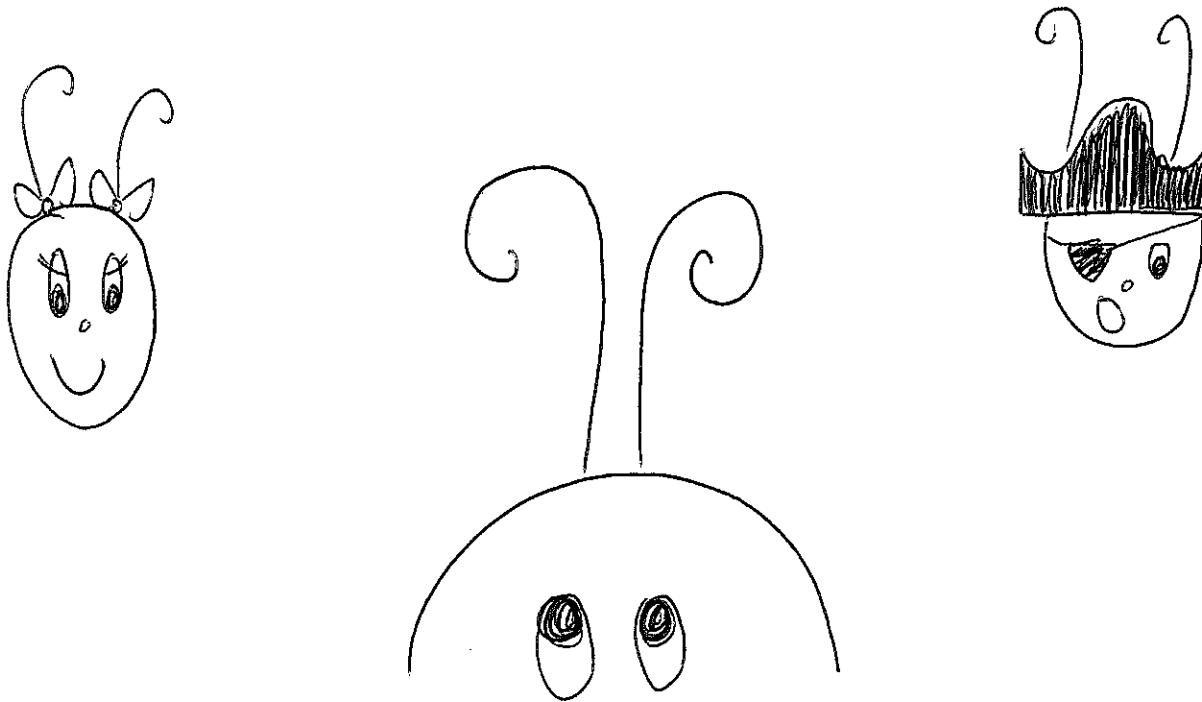

I love to play kickball.

I also love to dance ballet, paint, and build things with blocks.

I even wish I could go to space
and see and aliens!
How cool would that be?

I have two curly antennae.
They look great with bows or pirate hats.

Check it out, I even have these cool polka dots on my wings.

I was born with a small hand.

I had two surgeries when I was a baby.
I got to wear three casts!
My grandmother painted flowers on them.

The first surgery took little bones from my toes and put them in my fingers to see if they would grow.

How cool is that?

Now I have cute little toes.

In my second surgery, my surgeon made a thumb for me. I love my thumb!

My scar makes a heart, do you see it?

This is how I ride by bike.

This is how I carry two smoothies.
Raspberry-lime is my favorite, I brought one for you too!

This is how I type a letter to my mom on the computer.

This is how I tie my shoes.

Yes Jasmine!
Just a minute!

Oh no!
Rosie, can you help me? I dropped my ring!

Sometimes it is great to have
a small hand.

It can fit in small spaces.

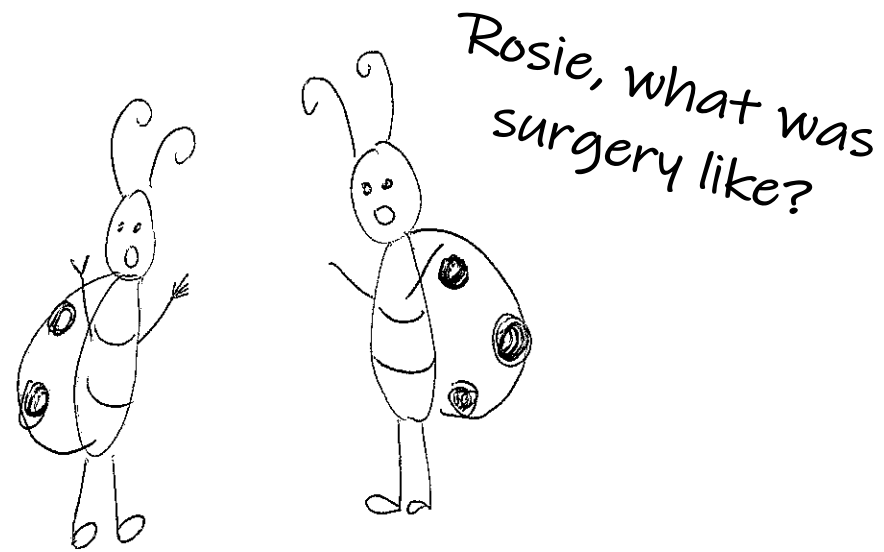

Sometimes it is hard to have a small hand.

Damani, can you help me carry this box?

Of course Rosie!

I may need help, but don't worry I will ask you when I need it.

My hands may look a little different from what you expect, that's ok! If you have questions, just ask nicely.
I would be happy to share.

What is more important? I just found out there is a kickball game today.
Will you be on my team?
